Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles. And let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us, fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith.

- Hebrews 12:1-2

A Saint is defined as 'one separated from the world and consecrated to God; a believer in Jesus Christ'. Saints are set apart. Their devotion to God and His church is blatantly obvious. Saints don't claim to be perfect people. However, they yearn for the things of God and they are committed to growing closer to Him. For saints, worship isn't something that is simply done on Sunday mornings. To them, worship is a lifestyle.

On Sunday, November 4th, we will celebrate 'All Saints Sunday' together as a church. This means that as we worship, we'll take time to remember all of the saints that have gone on before us while also giving special attention to the members of this church that have passed away since this time last year. They are: Mr. Gene Adamson, Mr. Ernest Edwards, Ms. Cathy Griffin, Mr. Brentley Lansing, Mr. Jeff Monk, and Mr. Steve Reed.

As we call out these names in worship, a candle will be lit in each person's memory. At that time, family members and friends will also be invited to stand as a way of honoring and remembering their loved ones.

This church has a long list of saints. In many ways they were ordinary people like you and me but in other ways they stood out because they also chose to live their lives as witnesses to the gospel of Jesus Christ. As a result, they impacted this community and helped to advance God's kingdom.

Even though their time here on earth has ended, on All Saints Sunday, we can celebrate their lives and the fact that their influence on us continues.

I hope that you'll be able to be present in worship on Sunday, November 4th as we give God thanks for all the saints and faithful servants who have lived among us.

Grace and Peace,
Jay

Recently, my man Jack Jackson McRae delivered a message at Oasis. It really got me to thinking about things. The title was All it Takes is All You Got. How cool is that? His point was that this is one of the mottos of the Marine Corps. Know whose else it is? Of our awesome God. He'll never give us more than we can take. He never promises it'll be easy, but He promises to walk beside us. All it takes is all we got, for Him. The kids amaze me with their growth and always pointing Oasis back to the God who grows and sustains us. Keep watching this group of young people, stay and watch them worship on a Wednesday night, or just give me a call to see how you can plug in! Garrett Teems, Youth Pastor
